Sentara Healthcare and Infinite Computer Solutions Create Joint Venture- OPTAFI, LLC End-to-End Cloud Transformation Designed by Healthcare for Healthcare

Norfolk, VA & Rockville, MD – Norfolk, Virginia-based Sentara Healthcare and Rockville, Maryland-headquartered Infinite Computer Solutions have entered into a joint venture to create OptaFi, LLC (www.optafi.com). OptaFi supports healthcare companies by delivering a reliable and efficient pathway to digital health, leveraging cloud migration expertise and an in-depth understanding of healthcare operations, security, compliance, and technology.

Headquartered in Virginia Beach, Va., OptaFi's mission is to modernize healthcare environments with a secure, cloud-first, high-speed, and cost-controlled digital landscape. Core services include:

- EMR on Cloud (Azure, AWS, Hybrid Cloud adjacent) transitions and management
- Healthcare enterprise data analytics platform build and management
- Cloud HIPAA / NIST security framework build, manage and deploy
- Cloud cost analysis and assessments (spend control and telemetry)

Designed By Healthcare For Healthcare

Operating in the cloud has enabled many industries the opportunity to transform their businesses into seamless, cost-effective, digitally-driven organizations that increase self-service, analytics and speed to market. OptaFi is intentionally designed by healthcare for healthcare, leveraging extensive experience, knowledge and tools to accelerate healthcare migration to the cloud.

"Sentara is a recognized healthcare industry leader and that achievement is the result of our relentless pursuit to provide the best experience for our patients and members. Now that our EMR, health plan, corporate, and most of the ancillary systems are cloud-based, we have seen tremendous benefits in data analytics and access, while realizing incredible yields in speed, resiliency, cost reduction and security," said Tim Skeen, executive vice president and chief information officer, Sentara Healthcare. "We have learned many lessons that we converted to best practices and tools that we are eager to take to the market via a focused, independent, technology services company. We are confident that OptaFi's expertise is unmatched in today's market. We look forward to seeing the positive impact OptaFi can bring to others in the healthcare ecosystem."

OptaFi clients will benefit from a proven and robust implementation model that brings scalability, modernization, and security to cloud computing. OptaFi focuses on end-to-end cloud transformation with a repeatable delivery model, tools, and unique service frameworks to enhance and transform businesses.
